The Prophet Ibrahim or Abraham عليه السلام was one of the great prophets.
He lived in the land of Palestine.

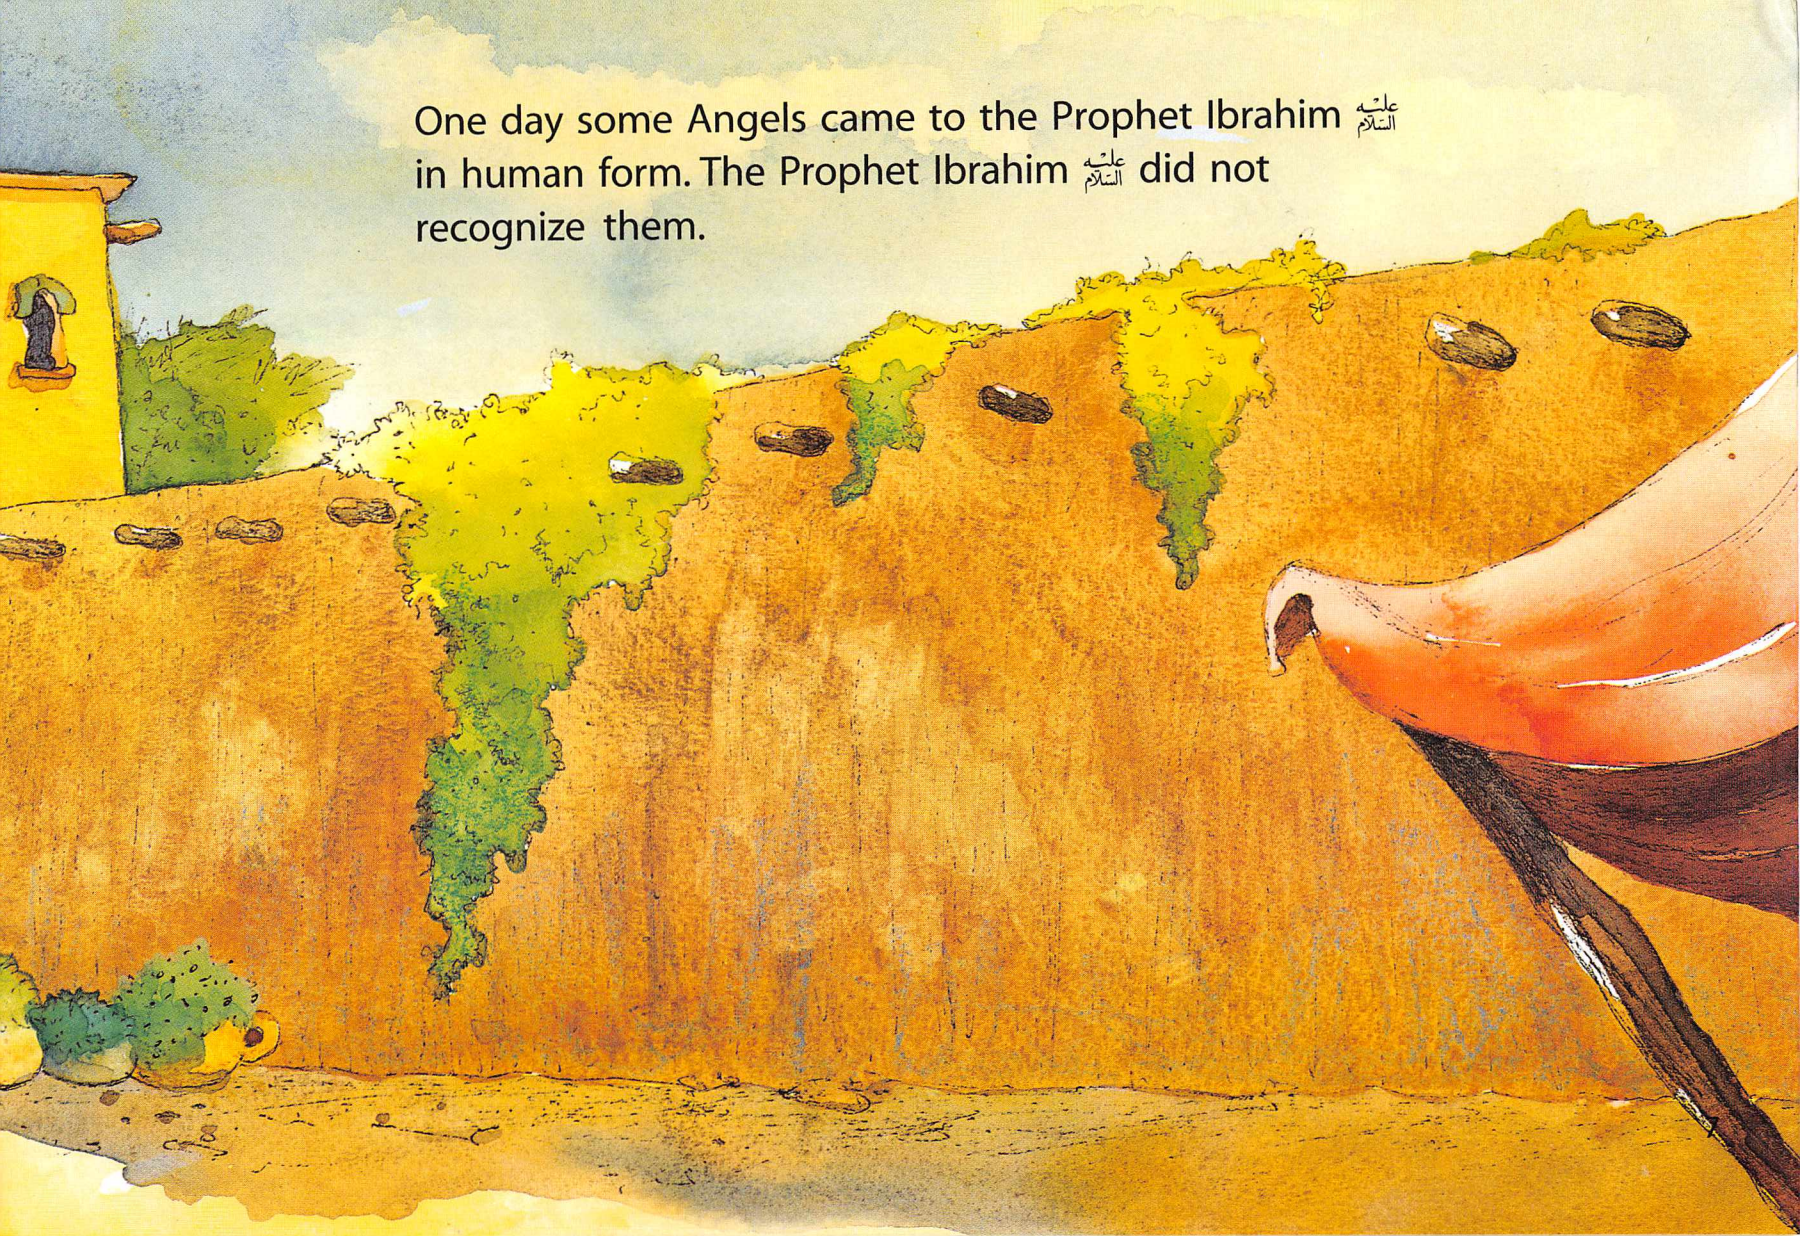

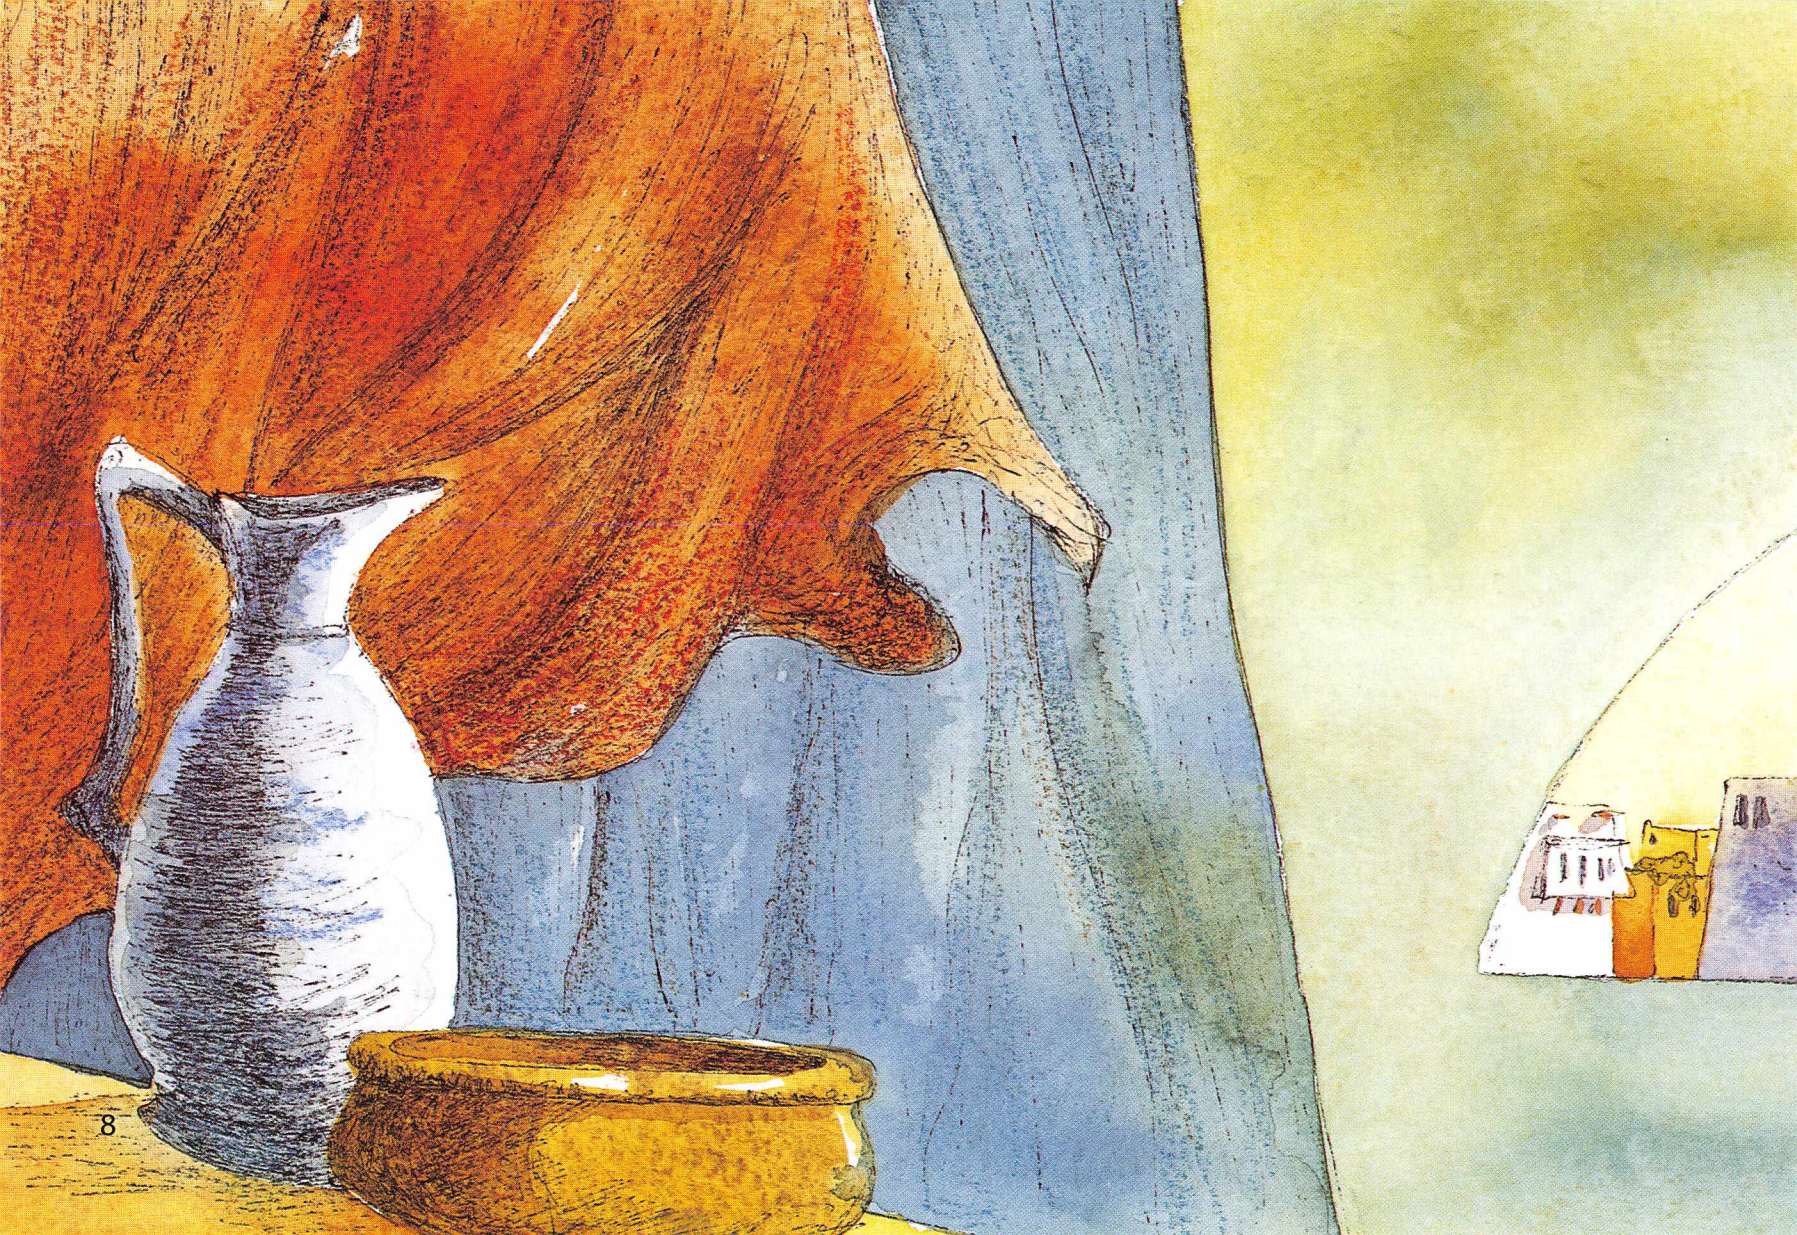

The Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام continued his preaching about the oneness of Allah and the message of the Hereafter for a very long time. But none responded his call except his wife and nephew, whose name was Lut or Lot عليه السلام.

One day some Angels came to the Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام in human form. The Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام did not recognize them.

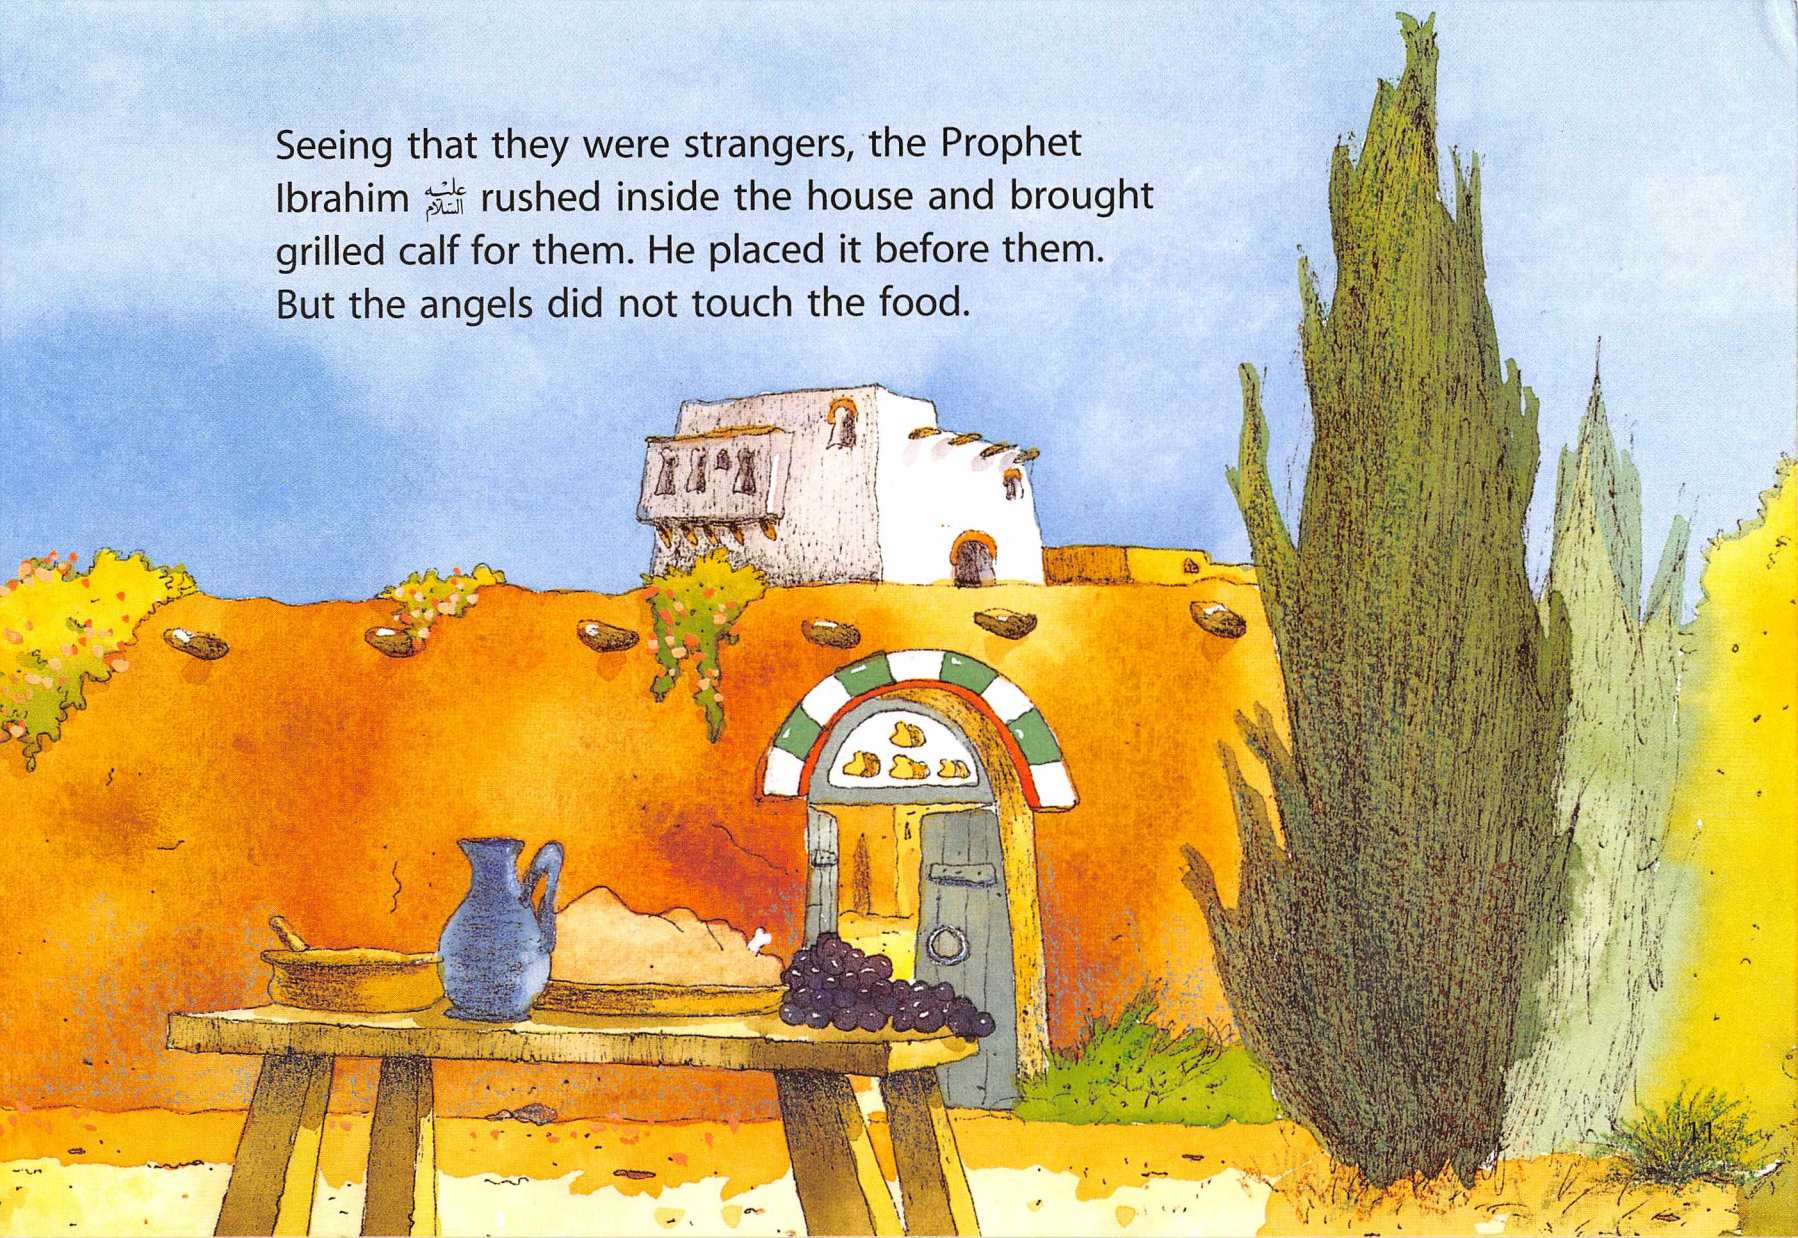

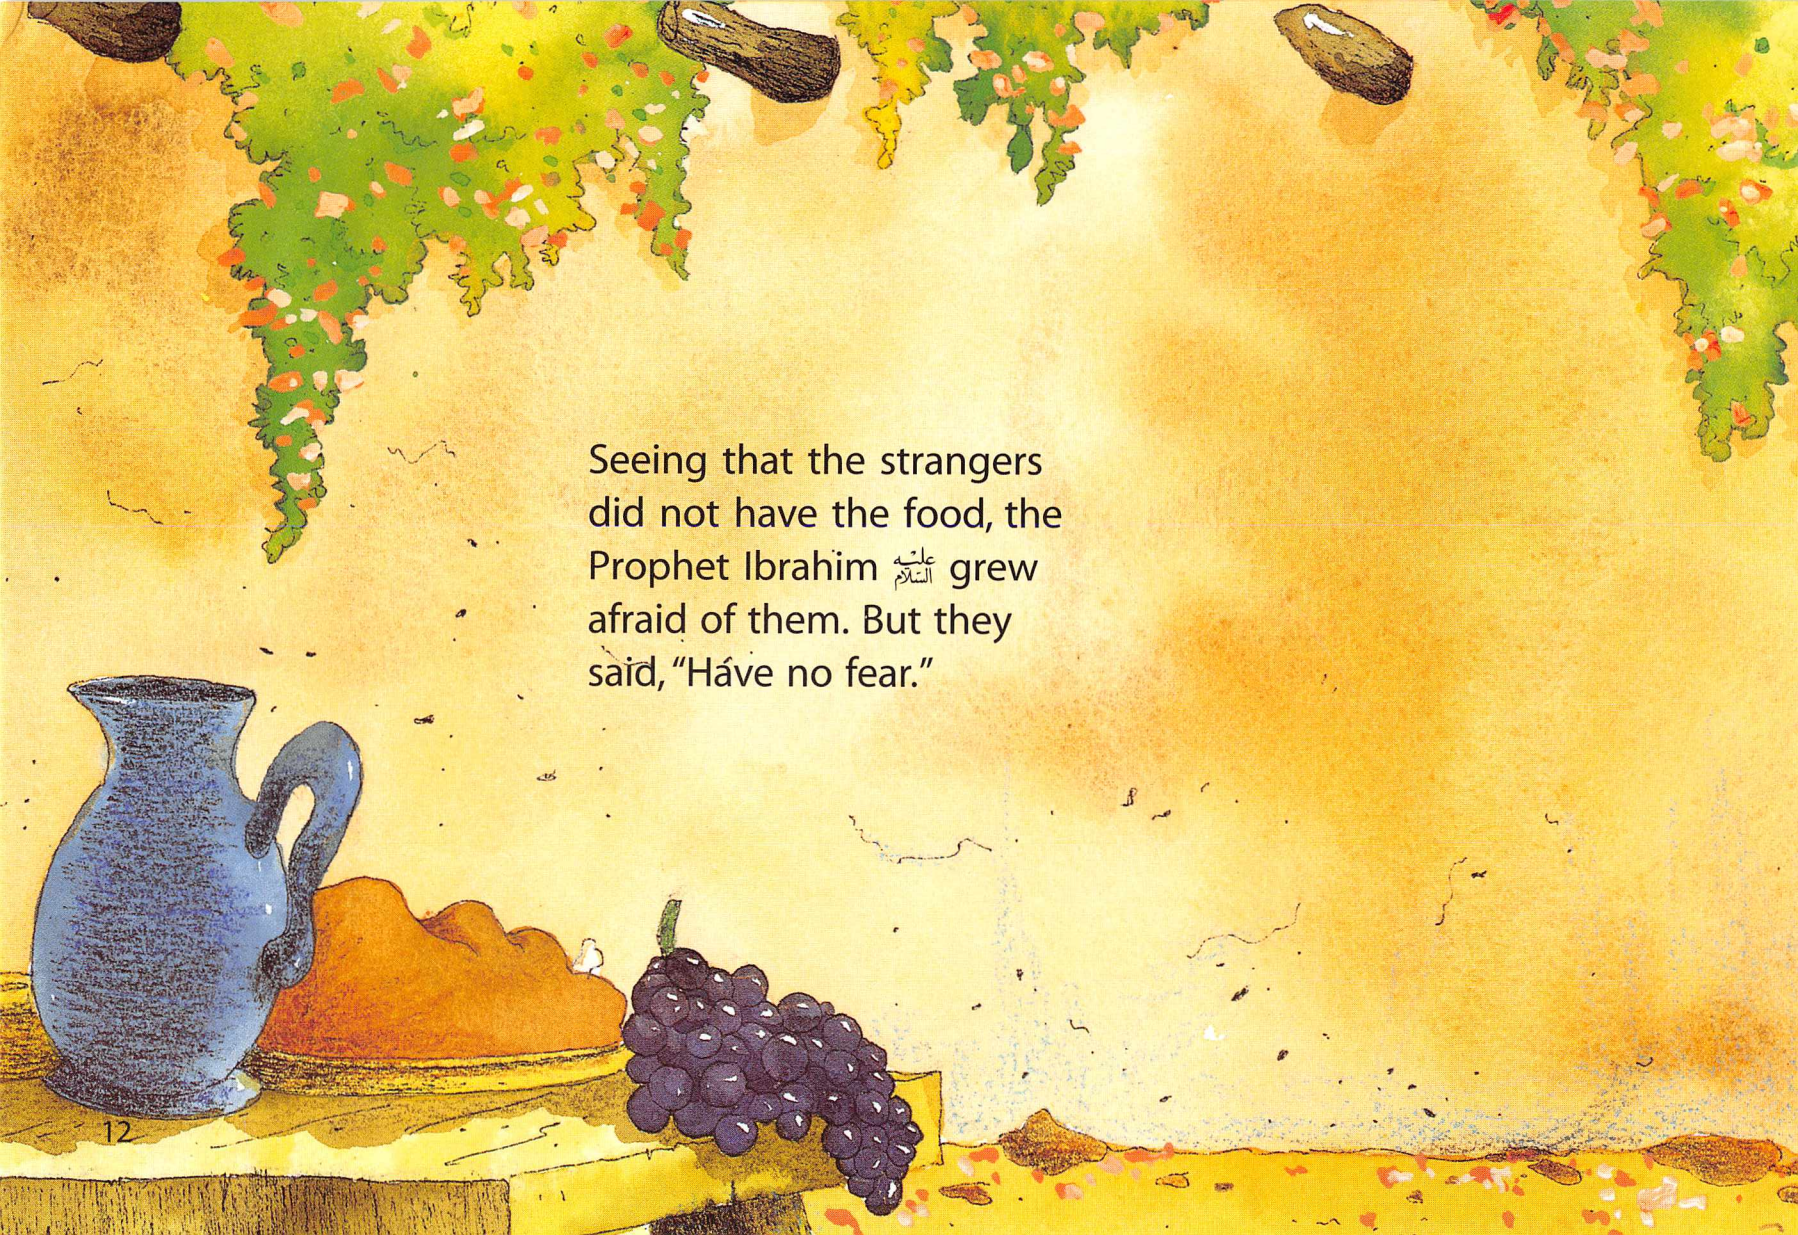

When the angels entered the house of the Prophet Ibrahim, they said, "Peace! Peace!" The Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام returned their greetings.

Seeing that they were strangers, the Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام rushed inside the house and brought grilled calf for them. He placed it before them. But the angels did not touch the food.

Seeing that the strangers did not have the food, the Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام grew afraid of them. But they said, "Have no fear."

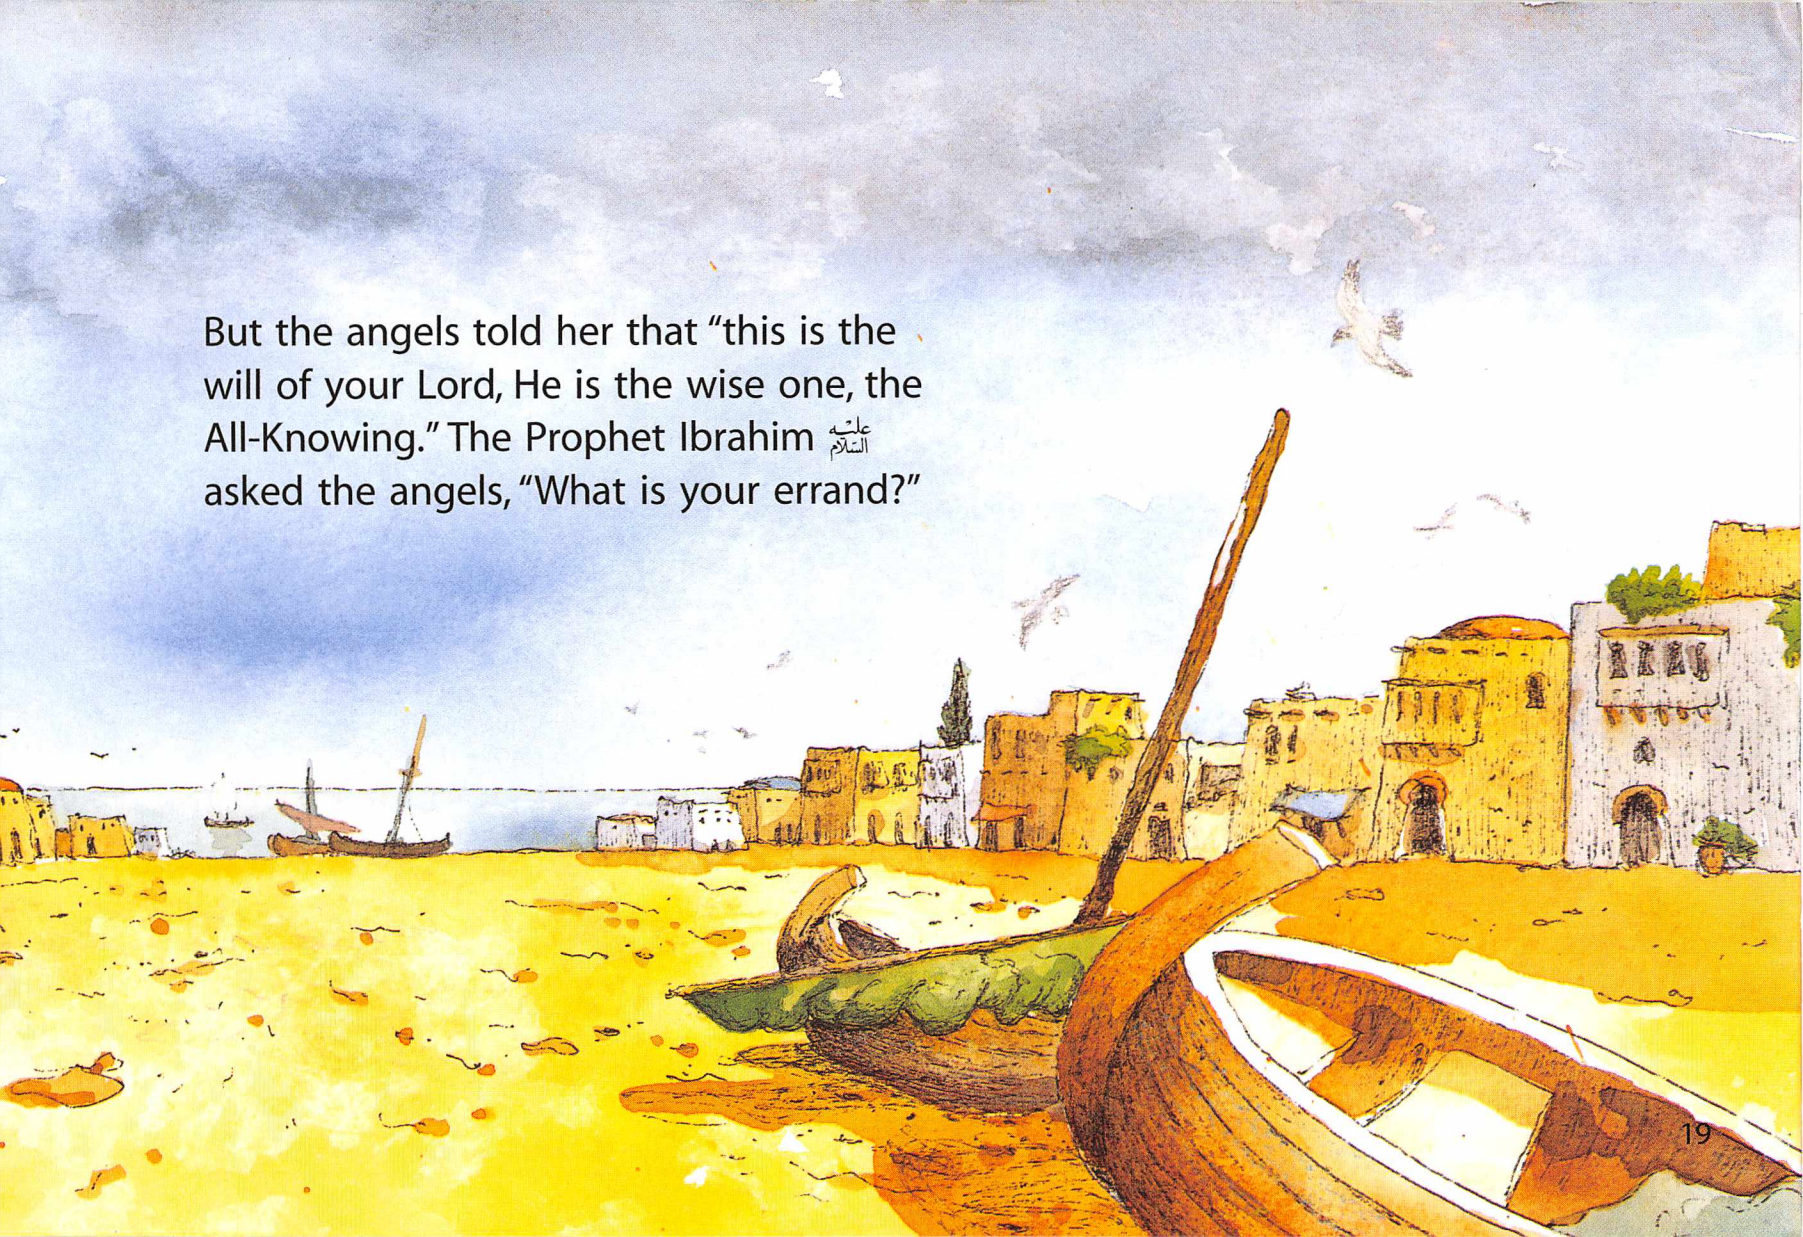

The angels gave them good news of a son who would become a wise person.

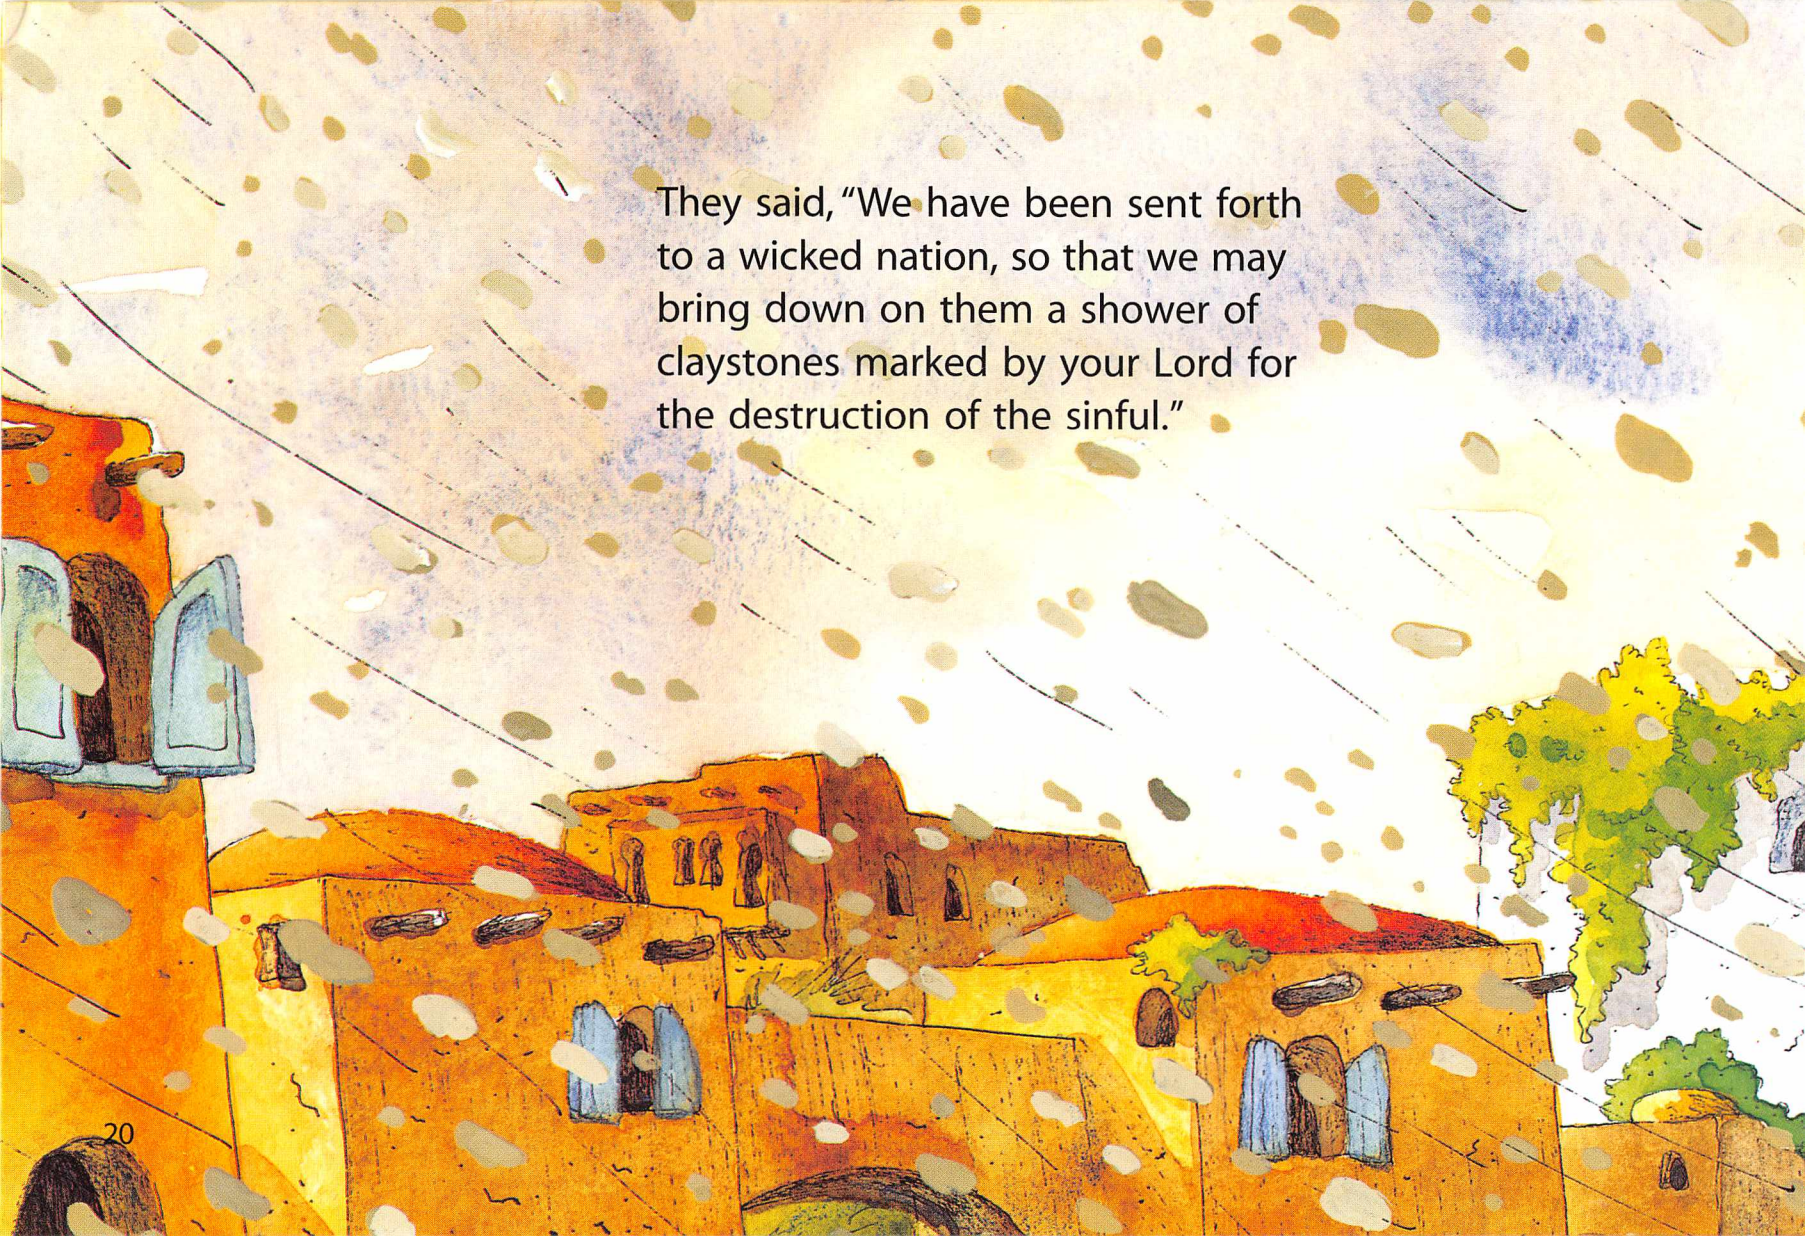

His wife did not believe the words of the angels and came crying and beating her face: "Surely, I am a barren old woman."

But the angels told her that "this is the will of your Lord, He is the wise one, the All-Knowing." The Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام asked the angels, "What is your errand?"

They said, "We have been sent forth to a wicked nation, so that we may bring down on them a shower of claystones marked by your Lord for the destruction of the sinful."

And so the angels destroyed the sinful people who used to live near the Dead Sea in those days.
